THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 1995 AND 1994

The Company achieved record sales, operating income and net income for the quarter ended March 31, 1995. Operating income rose 52% to $5,223 in the first quarter of 1995 compared to $3,445 in the comparable 1994 quarter. Net income for the first quarter of 1995 was $3,055 or $0.15 per share, versus $1,617 or $0.10 per share in the first quarter of 1994.

SALES

Sales for the first quarter of 1995 rose 30% to $46,477 compared to $35,636 for the first quarter of 1994. The increase during the quarter was primarily attributable to increased volume of source and specialty plasma shipments. Premier BioResources, Inc. ("PBI") acquired on January 27, 1994, contributed approximately $10.9 million and $7.7 million of plasma sales during the quarters ended March 31, 1995 and 1994, respectively.

GROSS MARGIN

Gross margin in the first quarter of 1995 was $9,342 or 20.1% of sales compared to $7,337 or 20.6% of sales in the first quarter of 1994. The decline in gross margin as a percentage of sales was primarily attributable to increased lower margin source plasma sales contributed by PBI and start-up expenses associated with foreign operations. This was partially offset by an improved sales mix of higher margin specialty plasma, improved pricing under long-term plasma supply contracts, and the profit contribution from increased sales of therapeutic products.

SELLING, GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE

Selling, general and administrative expenses were $3,026, or 6.5% of sales, for the first quarter of 1995 compared to $2,924 or 8.2% of sales in the first quarter of 1994. The reduction in these expenses as a percentage of sales reflects the full integration and economies associated with the PBI acquisition and ongoing cost containment measures.

OTHER OPERATING EXPENSES

Other operating expenses were $1,093 for the first quarter of 1995, compared to $968 for the first quarter of 1994, primarily as a result of additional freight expenses associated with the increased volume of sales during the quarter.

INTEREST EXPENSE

Interest expense decreased to $295 in the first quarter of 1995 from $837 in the first quarter of 1994 primarily due to the early retirement of the Company's subordinated and other debt in the fourth quarter of 1994.

OTHER FACTORS

The effective income tax rate of 38% was consistent with the first quarter of 1994 and differed from the federal statutory rate principally due to state income taxes and non-deductible foreign losses in 1995, offset by the effects of foreign trade income in both the current and comparable quarter.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As of March 31, 1995, the Company's current assets exceeded current liabilities by $24,040 as compared to a net working capital position of $25,552 at December 31, 1994. Approximately $9.5 million in a term loan and $6.8 million in revolving credit loans were outstanding under a credit agreement with the Company's principal lender at March 31, 1995. The credit agreement provides for $12 million in revolving credit borrowing capacity to satisfy the Company's working capital requirements. In addition, the Company had approximately $5.1 million in flexible term notes outstanding, the proceeds of which were used to finance the construction of a new biopharmaceutical facility. The flexible term note agreement provides for a maximum outstanding principal amount of $18 million.

Projected capital expenditures for the remainder of 1995 include the substantial completion of construction of a new biopharmaceutical manufacturing facility, which will also include the Company's executive offices; plasma center renovations and relocations; and recurring improvements and continued automation of the Company's laboratories and warehouse facilities. Except for the new facility, the Company expects that these expenditures and the Company's working capital requirements will be furnished by a combination of funds on hand, cash flow from operations and bank borrowings, as required, under the Company's credit agreement.
